

Iran occupies a unique and pivotal position in the global transportation landscape owing to its strategic geographical location. Leveraging this advantage, Houger, an esteemed Iranian enterprise specializing in transportation services, stands poised to serve as a cornerstone of support for its international counterparts. Through a myriad of offerings, Houger can act as a pivotal intermediary, streamlining operations and enhancing efficiency for its partners worldwide.

One of the key roles Houger can fulfill is that of a receiving agent for document delivery, ensuring timely and secure transmission of essential paperwork. Moreover, the company excels in overseeing collect charge shipments, facilitating seamless transfers of goods across borders. By establishing vital corridors to Russia & CIS countries, Houger opens up avenues for enhanced connectivity and trade opportunities.

Furthermore, Houger distinguishes itself by offering comprehensive Delivery Duty Paid (DDP) services, alleviating the burden of customs clearance for shipments. This commitment to excellence extends to the management of various types of shipments, including both general commodities and temperature-sensitive items such as blood and plasma samples. With a steadfast focus on precision and reliability, Houger adeptly navigates export customs formalities, ensuring smooth and hassle-free transportation experiences for its clients.
